

Arnhem Land & Kakadu Cultural Immersion

The Grow Hope Foundation invite you to Gunbalanya, also known as Oenpelli in Arnhem Land to learn about one of the world's oldest living cultures and connect with remote Indigenous Australia in a safe and meaningful way. Join us on a life changing experience, visiting sacred sites and building relationships with elders and traditional owners of the land.

Highlights include:

- Indigenous workshops on cross-culture and collaboration
- Country ranger programs
- Trips to homeland schools
- Hunting turtle and geese plucking
- Class visits and celebrating expo week with Gunbalayna school
- Visits to Kakadu National Park and sacred rock sites
- Traditional dancing and learning the local language
- River cruise

All participants are prepared for their immersion experience through a pre-departure cultural awareness workshop.
